WHEREAS, Certain events having recently transpired touching the moral integrity of Dr. J. C. Kilgo, President of Trinity College; W. R. Odell, member of the M. E. Church, South, in Concord, N. C., and B. N. Duke, of Main Street Methodist Church, Durham; therefore

Resolved, That this Conference has unabated confidence in the said J. C. Kilgo, W. R. Odell and B. N. Duke, and assures these brethren that it shall be the pleasure and faith of this Conference to aid them in overcoming, in the name of our Lord, the efforts being made to destroy our College and to damage the influence of the Methodist Church in North Carolina.

Resolved, That, in our judgment, the Church will be more united than ever in her prayer and help and purpose to sustain the College, with its able President and Faculty; and we hereby offer to the Messrs. Duke, the most generous benefactors of the College, our sincere thanks for their support of the institution.

Resolved, 2. That we earnestly advise young men of our Conference, whether graduates of our colleges or otherwise, seeking a special theological education, to seek it at our own Vanderbilt University.

W. S. RONE,
R. B. JOHN

M. C. Thomas introduced the following resolution, which was adopted:

Bishop Galloway, the appointed leader of our Century movement, in his address is urging the various Conferences held by him to hold a Twentieth Century Watch-Night Service in the interest of the great Thank Offering. He also desires that the other Annual Conferences will do the same thing, thus making it general throughout the Church.

Recognizing the proposition as eminently wise and timely; therefore

Resolved, That we, the pastors of the North Carolina Conference, will earnestly endeavor to induce and prepare our people to hold this solemn and important service.

E. A. YATES,
F. D. SWINDELL.

On motion, it was ordered that a committee of five, on Sunday Observance, be appointed. Bishop Morrison announced the following committee, viz.: F. D. Swindell, G. T. Adams, W. C. Norman, A. McCullen and A. P. Tyer.

W. C. Norman submitted and read the report of the Joint Board of Finance, which was adopted. (Document No. 15 of Appendix).

The distribution of the funds to claimants took place in open Conference to the representatives of claimants.

The order of the Conference to adjourn to meet this afternoon was recalled and it was ordered that we do now adjourn to meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

At 1:30 o'clock p. m. the Conference adjourned.

Benediction by Rev. A. D. Betts.

FIFTH DAY—EVENING SESSION.

MONDAY, December 10th, 1900.

The Conference opened at 7:30 o'clock, Bishop Morrison in the Chair.

The opening religious services were conducted by Rev. J. R. Brooks, D. D.

The Journal of the morning session was read and approved.

On motion of J. C. Kilgo, W. L. Cuninggim, T. N. Ivey, and R. H. Broom were appointed a committee to investigate the plans of reporting our statistics, and if possible devise some plan by which existing errors may be avoided.

Question 18 was called, viz.: "Who are superannuated?"

L. L. Nash, from the Committee on Conference Relations, submitted a report recommending that J. T. Bagwell be granted a superannuated relation, which was adopted.

On motion of F. A. Bishop, the Secretary was requested to convey to Hon. J. H. Small, a member of the House of Representatives of the United States from this State, the resolution contained in the report of the Committee on Temperance regarding the granting of license to government distilleries in the territories where the sale of liquor is prohibited by State and County laws.

Bishop Morrison announced the Joint Board of Finance as follows:

Clerical—G. B. Perry, W. C. Norman, J. H. Frizzelle, J. P. Pate, R. W. Bailey, J. A. Hornaday, C. W. Robinson, J. D. Bundy, M. D. Hix.

Lay—B. B. Adams, W. H. McCabe, Q. K. Nimocks, H. N. Page, W. E. Springer, T. A. Green, D. D. Haskett, J. T. Flythe, C. E. Kramer.

N. H. D. Wilson submitted and read the report of the Board of Missions, which was adopted. (Document No. 16 of Appendix).

On motion of N. H. D. Wilson, M. T. Plyler was appointed to fill the vacancy on the Board of Missions made by the location of E. C. Glenn.

W. S. Rone introduced the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved 1. That we have greatly enjoyed the visitation, the presidency in session and cabinet, and the preaching and lectures of Bishop H. C. Morrison at this session of our Conference.

Resolved 2. That we cordially and affectionately invite him to be the president of our next session, and that if that be not granted we will welcome him with great delight so soon as his coming shall be in the plan of Episcopal visitation.

W. S. RONE,
W. H. MOORE.

J. T. Gibbs introduced the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted by a rising vote:

Resolved 1st, That the thanks of this Conference are due, and are hereby given, to the good people of New Berne for their bountiful and kind hospitality; and we pray the blessings of God upon them.

Resolved 2d, That we hereby return our thanks to the railroad and steamboat lines for reduced fares to and from the Conference; and also to the churches of New Berne that were opened to our ministry during the session.

J. T. GIBBS.
L. L. NASH.

At the suggestion of Bishop Morrison, a vote of thanks was given the Secretaries of the Conference for their labors during this session of the Conference.

The Journal of the evening session was read and approved.

It was moved and carried that the Conference adjourn.

Question 46 was called, viz.: "Where are the preachers stationed this year?"

Bishop Morrison announced the appointments. (See Appointments).

The Conference adjourned at 9:35 o'clock, p. m.

Benediction by Bishop Morrison.

APPENDIX.

[Document No. 1.]

MEMOIR OF REV. ISAAC W. AVENT.

REV. ISAAC WATTS AVENT was born in Chatham County, North Carolina, September 9th, 1823. His father's house was the favorite lodging place of the early Methodist itinerant, and his parents being very pious were influences that conspired, doubtless, to early impress his mind of his need of a Saviour, whom he sought and found at the early age of ten years.

While young Avent was still in his teens, he was placed at the head of a class at the old home church, where he was converted—old Buck Horn.

Being drawn out so soon in the Master's work, he felt the responsibility without proficiency, and turned his energies toward a preparation of head, as well as heart; and at the common schools of that day laid the foundation of what proved to be a lengthy life of usefulness in God's service.

Not long after he reached his majority he was licensed to preach, and seeing the Lord's cause prosper in his hands he was encouraged to seek admission into the itinerant ranks, and was admitted at the Raleigh Conference November 9th, 1853; serving faithfully on missions and circuits from mountain to seacoast, until by the wear of time he gave up traveling and took a supernumerary relation—serving with fidelity—aiding the pastor in every way until at the Conference at Washington last year he was placed on the superannuated list. He died in peace January 18th, 1900.

He served the following places:

1854.....	Raleigh Circuit.
1855.....	Columbia Circuit.
1856.....	Wentworth Circuit.
1857.....	Patrick Circuit.
1858.....	Jonesville Circuit.
1859.....	Alexander Circuit.
1860.....	Surry Circuit.
1861-2.....	Blue Ridge Mission.
1863-'64.....	East Rowan Circuit.
1865-'68.....	Cape Fear Circuit.
1869-'70.....	Deep River Circuit.
1871-'2-3.....	Buck Horn Circuit.
1874.....	Smithville Circuit.

1875-'6-'7	Cumberland Circuit.
1878.....	Supernumerary.
1879-'80	Lillington Circuit.
1881-,2	Second man on Buck Horn Circuit.
1883.....	Ashpole Mission.
1884 '5-'6	Second man on Buck Horn Circuit.

At the Conference of 1886 he ceased from traveling.

In 1855 he was ordained deacon by Bishop Early, at Wilmington, N. C., and was ordained Elder by Bishop Pierce at Goldsboro, 1857.

Bro. Avent was twice married. First to Miss Temperance Rollins, of his native county, who shared with him many years of the itinerant service. After her decease he was married to Miss Chloe H. Pegram, of Harnett County, North Carolina, who survives him.

His neatly kept and well selected library he left to Trinity College.

The last Conference he attended was at Raleigh, 1897, where he received a great blessing—shouting aloud.

The last time he preached was at the protracted meeting at Cokesbury, 1899, when at his invitation a young lady came forward to the altar and was converted. For the last year he was nearly blind, but his faith grew stronger.

He was only confined to his room for about a week before he died, and for several days was seemingly unconscious, but like a ship gliding into port, the frail bark of Isaac Watts Avent was at the end of its voyage, and his redeemed and glorified spirit went up the "shining way" to be with God and loved ones ascended.

Let us cherish his memory and emulate his Godly example
H. G. STAMEY

MEMOIR OF REV. L. O. WYCHE.

Among those of our brothers who have been promoted and passed up to more inviting fields during the year, whose Christian virtues deserve to be remembered as worthy of imitation, we can name none more so than REV. LAWRENCE OLIN WYCHE. He was the son of Rev. Ira T. Wyche and Martha Pearce Wyche, whose fragrant memory still lingers in Methodist homes from mountain top to ocean shore. Brother Wyche was born in Person County in 1852, educated at Trinity College, grew tired by the wayside and fell asleep on Core Sound Mission March 12th, 1900. He was reared in a most refined, cultured, Christian home. His father and mother lived close up to God.

and their holy living told on his life. In early boyhood he gave his heart to God, and ever remained true to his first vows. We cannot remember him more tenderly to-day than to tell you of his humble, Christian life. His unshaken confidence in Jesus Christ was supreme. He relied on Him amid all the trials to which he was subjected, whether that of location or when sent to missions on lonely sea-girt isle. He obeyed joyously with his hand in God's hand. He was the pastor of the church on Ocracoke island when so much feeling existed between the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Both churches confided in his integrity at all times. Not an unkind word was ever spoken of him. The two churches are more harmonious now. Who knows but that was the work that God intended for him to accomplish? If it be so, great good did he.

He was humble as a little child. He never thought he did anything when he compared his work with the vastness of what was to be done for the Master.

His ministerial work was in the East. In passing to and from my house was his home. 'Tis pleasant to me, indeed, to remember that he so often occupied the prophet's chamber in my home, prepared long years ago by a sainted father. At the last session of Conference he was my guest, so cheerful, so hopeful, as the way had been opened for him to resume work in the Conference. He stood with a sickle drawn ready to gather grain, little dreaming that God then had numbered his days. Soon he was to go to a so much better appointment, an appointment, without care for children, an appointment at the City of Peace. The Great Bishop needed him for some specific work, and in much love took him from this mission field of sorrows.

Though not so useful as others on account of the restricted sphere in which he moved, yet he has left foot-prints behind him in which we may step heavenward.

Our brother left three small children, his wife having preceded him to heaven three years. The call of the Master was sudden—it came at sunrise. He laid his shackles by without a single pang of parting. Thus lived, suffered, labored, and died, Rev. Lawrence Olin Wyche.

With Christian sympathy,

MARGARET ARTHUR CALL.

MEMOIR OF REV. T. PAGE RICAUD.

REV. THOMAS PAGE RICAUD was born in Baltimore, Md., October 19th, 1817, and died at the home of his son-in-law, Prof. W. J. Ramsey, in Durham, N. C., on the 6th of October, 1900, lacking only a few days of being 83 years of age. The history of the subject of this sketch in early life is one of almost romantic interest.

His father and mother having died when he was quite young, he was adopted at five years of age by a kinsman, who took him with his family to the city of Mexico, where young Ricaud grew up and received a liberal education, taking a special course in the University of Mexico in preparation for the priesthood in the Roman Catholic church. In the meantime he enlisted with the revolutionists in a civil war, which broke out in Mexico, that resulted in the establishment of the republic of Mexico, upon broader principles of liberty. He was wounded and taken prisoner while acting as courier in this struggle. In early manhood he left Mexico for France, and in a short time returned from France to the United States, and eventually located in Virginia, taking up the study of law. While engaged in his law studies he attended a Methodist revival and was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Feeling called to the work of the ministry, he obtained license to preach, and on November 10th, 1841, at Portsmouth, Va., he was admitted, on trial, into the Virginia Conference and transferred to the North Carolina Conference, of which he remained a member the rest of his life.

He served the following charges:

Junior preacher on Franklin Ct. (Danville District).....	1842
Halifax (Danville District)	1843
Plymouth	1844
Beaufort	1845, 1846
Mattamuskeet	1847

At the Conference which met in Greenville, December, 1891, he took a superannuated relation, and sustained that relation until death.

In 1845, while stationed at Beaufort, he was happily married to Miss Anna M. King, daughter of the late Dr. Francis L. King. She was in every way fitted to be the wife of a Methodist preacher, and as true helpmeet she shared with her husband the joys and sorrows of itinerant life, until on the 22th of November, 1895, in Wilmington, N. C., her beautiful life on earth peacefully closed, and her remains were laid to rest in Oakdale Cemetery, where by her side now rests the body of her devoted husband. Four children survive those sainted parents: Mr. Thomas Page Ricaud, Jr., of South Carolina, Hon. A. G. Ricaud, of New York, and Mrs. Sarah R. Farrior and Mrs. W. J. Ramsey, of North Carolina. Uncle Ricaud had the characteristics that always win success. Combined with his native talent he possessed an unflagging industry and a never-failing cheerfulness of spirit. However hard his field of labor, or however arduous his toils—whoever heard him murmur, or whoever saw him discouraged or despondent?

What a long chain of appointments, cheerfully and faithfully filled by this man of God! Thousands of homes were made glad and better because of his genial, Christly presence about their hearthstones, and multitudes through his faithful ministry were brought to Christ—gathered into the church—and helped on their way to heaven. Doubtless there were many of his spiritual children that had crossed the flood before him, who on that October morning were watching and waiting for him at the beautiful gate. He did not go into the presence of his Redeemer empty-handed.

In a peculiar degree he exercised the spirit of charity toward all his brethren, always ready to make a generous allowance for the faults and failings of others. He seemed incapable of bearing animosity towards anyone. Cultured in mind and fluent in speech, polished and pleasant in manner, kind and loving in all his bearing, he bore himself with an humble dignity that commanded the respect and love of all who knew him. And it came to pass, also, that in the evening time there was light. I never saw a more beautiful old age. With an ardent affection he loved his friends, especially his brethren in the ministry. How glad he was to meet with these comrades at our annual gatherings! Who was there could fail to see how much he added to the interest of our Conference, at Washington, last winter? Just fifty-four years before that date, Bishop

James O. Andrew presided at a Conference held at that place, and Uncle Ricaud was the only one present last Conference who was there little more than half a century before. We shall miss his familiar figure and his cordial hand-shake as from time to time we gather to receive our appointments. As the sun of his life was setting, there were no clouds to obscure its light. The gospel he had so long and faithfully preached to others sustained and comforted him in the dying hour. Time and again he declared his readiness to depart. Without a struggle, like an infant falling into sweet slumber, he "fell on sleep." Hail, sainted father in Israel! We expect again to see thee, and renew our friendship and love on the eternal shore. Till then, farewell!

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

The Committee learns with pleasure of the continued prosperity of our Publishing House. From the report submitted to this body, by the Agents, we find that the business for the year ending March 31st, 1900, reached the splendid total of $383,745.94, which was an increase of more than $40,000 over the previous year.

We rejoice that the scholarly men of our church are giving us a series of strong books, and we call upon our people to encourage authorship among us (and merit) by buying these books.

CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

We call attention to the Christian Advocate, our general organ, so ably edited by Rev E. E. Hoss, D. D., and indulge the hope that all our preachers will read it and put it into the hands of our reading people as far as possible, believing that the reading will not only increase the connectional spirit but will be helpful to their Christian life.

We call attention to the Methodist Review and Review of Missions, each valuable in their spheres.

We do most heartily recommend these periodicals to the people.

RALEIGH CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

We learn with great pleasure from the Editor of our paper that it is enjoying great prosperity. Its subscription list now numbers more than 6,000. Who can estimate the good done by such a paper, clean, capable and spiritual, going into six thousand homes weekly and read by thirty thousand people?

We recommend that March be made "Advocate" month and that all our preachers, pastors, and Presiding Elders unite with the Editor in increasing the subscription list.

We also recommend that J. G. Brown, Esq, of Raleigh, N. C., be appointed proxy for the Conference to represent our stock in the meeting of stockholders of the RALEIGH CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE CO.

We also recommend that Monday at 11 o'clock of this session of the Conference the special order of the day be "The consideration of the claims of the ADVOCATE."

We ask the Bishop to appoint Rev. H. B. Anderson Conference Colporter for the ensuing year.

REPORT OF TRUSTEES OF ORPHANAGE.

The Trustees of the Orphanage are gratified to report that the work committed to them seems to meet with the continued favor of our people.

During the two years since the beginning of this enterprise there has been contributed in cash $10,236.03. There are two good pledges—one for $1,000, one for $5,500—which will swell the amount of cash and its equivalent to the sum of $16,236.03. In addition to this, pledges have been made for the support of eight orphans—which is the equivalent of the income on $8,000.

These figures do not include any amount contributed through the Twentieth Century Fund, which is yet in the hands of the Treasurer of that fund, nor any amount paid in during the session of this Conference. More than $2,000 will probably be received from these sources.

The first building is completed and occupied by the Superintendent, and is furnished for the care of thirty-two children. More can be accommodated if necessary.

The Trustees respectfully ask that Rev. J. W. Jenkins be appointed as Superintendent of the Orphanage during the coming Conference year.

They further ask that the Executive Committee of the Orphanage, composed of R. T. Gray, J. S. Wynne, L. B. Bynum, T. N. Ivey, J. G. Brown, be appointed to confer with a similar committee appointed by the Western North Carolina Conference, looking to the co-operation of the two Conferences in their work for the care of the orphans of the State.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY OBSERVANCES.

We believe that nothing is of more vital importance to the Church of God than keeping the Sabbath holy, and nothing of more value to the State than the quiet, thoughtful Sunday.

Many are the encroachments made by Sunday toil and coarse amusement. They are rapidly increasing in form, number, and force.

They hinder the work of the Church, injure our citizenship, and debase the morals of our people.

We must check the tendencies, and educate our people up to the best ideals on this matter.

Nothing short of compliance with God's command ought to be satisfactory. Only works of strict mercy and necessity should ever be permitted anywhere on God's day.

We desire to recognize the good work being done by the Sunday League of America, represented at this session of our Conference by Dr. Edward Thompson. We are glad to know that he proposes to give one month of 1901 to our Conference, holding meetings and circulating literature on Sunday reform. We have examined some of these leaflets which he proposes to circulate and find them to be valuable, and we hope that they may prove to be good seed, and that they may be planted in much good ground.

We feel that every effort to bring back God's day to the homes and cities of our land ought to be welcomed by this Conference; therefore,

Resolved, That we will cordially co-operate with the Sunday League of America in its efforts to preserve the purity of the Christian Sabbath by using our influence to promote its proper observance by discouraging the reading of Sunday mail and Sunday papers, and Sunday travel, and the use of the holy day for pleasurable diversions.

REPORT ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

We, the Committee on District Conference Records, after a careful examination of the Records, submit the following report:

The Records of the Washington District are neatly kept. Three criticisms are offered. The official roll of members and delegates is omitted. Nothing is said of reports of pastors on spiritual condition, etc., beyond the fact that such reports were made.

The Records of the Raleigh District are not very well arranged. The appearance could have been better.

The Records of the following Districts have been well kept: Elizabeth City, Durham, Warrenton, New Berne, Rockingham, Fayetteville, and Wilmington.

A. L. ORMOND, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

Resolved 1. That we, as a Conference and a Church, being opposed to the manufacture, sale, and use of all intoxicating liquors as a beverage, pledge ourselves to do all in our power to discourage and prohibit the same. We are in hearty sympathy with every wise effort being made or shall be made to remove or lessen the curse of intemperance.

Resolved 2. That we will faithfully and fully enforce the requirements of the Discipline, which requires that all our preachers and members abstain from the manufacture, sale, and use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage, from signing petitions for such sale, from becoming bondsmen for any person as a condition for securing license, and from renting property to be used for such sale. The liberty which we, as a Church, demand is the liberty of living in a society where no man shall be protected in evil doing, where nothing that wars with the public good shall be licensed by statutes; when drinking and drunkenness and all the crimes and evils to which they lead, together with all the haunts of the drunkard, and all the apparatus for making him, shall utterly and forever be put out of the way.

Resolved 3. That our Representatives in the United States Congress be requested to do all possible for securing such legislation as will prohibit the granting of license to government distilleries in the bounds of any and all territory where the sale of liquors is prohibited by State and County laws.

Resolved 4. That this report be read in all our Churches, and also published in the RALEIGH ADVOCATE.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Your Board is duly sensible of the far-reaching importance of the Church's work in the field of education. Christ himself made it fundamental as a factor in the world's redemption. When he laid upon his disciples the commission to go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature, he also obligated them to teach them all things whatsoever he had commanded them. The two cannot be separated without doing violence to the truth. The Church must educate or die. And she must not be content with anything less than the highest culture. Christ never touched any old truth that the world had cuffed about but that it shone with a diviner light, and there sprang before the mental vision a richness and fulness of meaning never seen before. So it is for the Church of Christ in her institutions of learning to hew out the pathway through ignorance and error to the discovery of the truth, and never to follow with belated step in the wake of others. Your Board contends that education in order to be Christian must be thorough, and as broad in the development of character as the sympathies of Christ. We must take no backward step here, and we rejoice that our beloved Methodism is moving forward to the better equipment of her institutions of learning.

UNIVERSITIES.

VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY

Southern Methodism has but one University. This is the Vanderbilt, located at Nashville, Tennessee. It is the head of our correlated institutions of learning. To it we look for the theological and university training of our young men. We rejoice in the success which it has achieved, and in the noble work which it is doing. We heartily commend it to the patronage of our people, and especially do we urge that our young men who are looking to the ministry of our Church avail themselves of the advantages which it offers.

COLLEGES.

TRINITY COLLEGE.

Our hearts are made glad by the continued prosperity of this institution. Strong, aggressive, courageous, she stands for the highest type of Christian character. Her President and faculty are among the number of God's noblemen. It is her purpose to push with unabated energy the cause of Christian education. Furnished with better equipments and larger facilities, she is able to do this work with greater efficiency than at any time in the past. We are glad to note an increase of 41 in attendance over the corresponding date of last year, the present enrollment being 258.

We would call the attention of our people to the fact that Trinity is now offering 60 scholarships to be awarded upon the basis of the scholarship of the applicant.

The Trustees inform us of the following donations during the year :

"At the commencement, through the President of the College, Mr. Jas. B. Duke, of New York, announced the donation of a library building to the College. On October 5th, Mr. Washington Duke, through the President of the College, announced his gift of $100,000 to its permanent endowment fund. Mr. H. J. Bass, of Durham, N. C., endowed the 'Herbert Bass Scholarship' of $1,000, named in honor of his son, who died during the present year." The Board desires to express its sincere appreciation of these noble gifts, and to return to these liberal benefactors of our much loved institution our heartfelt gratitude.

The following are the property valuations of the College: General endowment fund, $333,000; buildings and grounds, and other equipments, $390,900.

Among the further needs of the College we would call your attention to the building of a truly great library. We have the assurance of a building; we must fill it with the best books of the world. We commend this cause to the liberality of our people, and solicit contributions of any amount for this purpose.

The Board recommends that the Conference confirm the nomination of Mr. John F. Bruton to fill the vacancy on the Board of Trustees.

The Board further recommends that the Conference ask the Bishop to re-appoint Rev. John C. Kilgo President of Trinity College.

The Board unanimously adopted the following by a rising vote:

WHEREAS, We are glad to know of the strong, steady growth of Trinity College under the president management; be it

Resolved, That we heartily approve the efforts evidenced by the Board of Trustees for its continued success, and that we heartily endorse the President, Rev. Jno. C. Kilgo, D. D., and the Board of Trustees, and approve their management of the affairs of the College.

SECONDARY SCHOOLS.

GREENSBORO FEMALE COLLEGE.

We are pleased to note the continued prosperity of this deserving institution. It has long been in the field, giving Christian education to the women of our Church. It is deserving of our patronage, and we heartily commend it to our people.

LITTLETON FEMALE COLLEGE.

The President's report shows a large increase of patronage and many material improvements which it gives the Board great pleasure to learn. We heartily appreciate the work which this institution is doing in the field of Christian education for women, and give to it our earnest endorsement.

The Board passed the following resolution concerning it:

Resolved, That the sixty-four shares of stock in Littleton Female College owned by the North Carolina Conference be returned to the original donors, believing that the best interests of both the institution and the Conference will be thereby conserved.

The Board recommends that the Conference request the Bishop to re-appoint Rev. J. M. Rhodes President of Littleton Female College.

LOUISBURG FEMALE COLLEGE.

The President of this institution desires it to be strictly understood that "Louisburg Female College is owned and controlled by Methodists, and is run in the interests of the Methodist Church." The Board is gratified to learn of its prosperity and heartily commends it to the patronage of our people. In this connection we desire to say that the Church owes Mr. Washington Duke a debt of gratitude for furnishing the buildings of this College free of rent, taxes, and insurance; thus making it possible to offer cheaper rates to our girls than would otherwise be feasible. We hereby express to him our sincere thanks for the same.

TRINITY PARK HIGH SCHOOL.

This institution is located on the campus of Trinity College. It is in the midst of the most prosperous year of its history, and is the best equipped school for doing high grade preparatory work of which we have any knowledge. We earnestly commend it to our people.

The Board recommends that the Conference ask the Bishop to appoint Rev. J. F. Bivins Headmaster.

THE SCARRITT BIBLE TRAINING SCHOOL.

This institution seeks to prepare young ladies who desire to become missionaries, Sunday School teachers, nurses, or who desire to become well-furnished Christian workers. It has its unique place in all Southern Methodism, and we commend it to all who can avail themselves of its advantages.

The Board recommends that an assessment of $600 be made for Paine and Lane Institute, and that an assessment of $323 be made for the General Board of Education for the ensuing year.

We ask the Conference to raise $5,000 for education, 33⅓ per cent. of which shall go into the permanent Loan Fund of Trinity College, the remainder to be applied as heretofore.

The Board recommends that Rev. J. C. Kilgo be re-appointed Conference Educational Secretary.

The following are the assessments for 1901:

District.	Paine Institute.	Education.
Raleigh	$ 71 00	$ 628 00
Durham	70 00	621 00
Fayetteville	54 00	482 00
Rockingham	57 00	508 00
Wilmington	63 00	559 00
New Berne	69 00	613 00
Washington	73 00	644 00
Warrenton	71 00	631 00
Elizabeth City	72 00	639 00

The Board recommends the following:

WHEREAS, The law passed by the Legislature, permitting graduates of certain schools and colleges in the State to teach in the public schools without examination by the County Superintendent of Public Instruction, puts other institutions of equal grade to a great disadvantage, and we think is unjust; and whereas, we think the law of our State should apply alike to all schools of equal grade:

Resolved, That we respectfully and earnestly request the Legislature, soon to convene, to rescind the law bestowing the above-mentioned special privileges upon special institutions of learning, and that Rev. J. M. Rhodes be requested to bring this matter to the attention of the Legislature.

THE TWENTIETH CENTURY MOVEMENT.

The Twentieth Century movement has been prosecuted with more or less vigor throughout the year, and, while we have reason to believe that the total collection will be very creditable to the membership of our beloved Methodism within the bounds of the Conference, we are not able at this time to give the amount secured, many pastors not having made any report concerning the movement on their charges.

The Board urges the pastors of every pastoral charge to close up the Twentieth Century movement on their respective charges by the 1st of January, 1901, collecting all smaller subscriptions and turning the others into the form of negotiable notes.

For this purpose the Board ordered the continuation of the Executive Committee appointed at last Conference. They are as follows: J. C. Kilgo, ex officio, A. P. Tyer, Chairman; J. G. Brown, Secretary and Treasurer; J. B. Hurley, F. B. Gibson, and W. C. Norman.

The Board re-elected J. G. Brown, Raleigh, N. C., Treasurer of the Twentieth Century Fund, and all pastors are requested to direct all money collected for this purpose to him.

A. P. TYER, Chairman.

L. S. MASSEY, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

The Sunday School Board respectfully submits its report as follows:

From the reports of the current year we gather the following statistics:

Number of schools.....	610
Number of officers and teachers.....	5,007
Number of scholars.....	39,148
Amount collected for missions.....	$ 2,705 42
Amount collected on Children's Day	251 66
Amount collected for Sunday School purposes	6,936 37

As to Children's Day fund, the amount brought over from past year is $447.13. Of this amount $256.08 has been donated to needy Sunday Schools, and 25 cents expended for record book, leaving a balance of $190.80. Of this balance the Treasurer has been instructed, in accordance with the requirements of the Discipline, to pay to the Board of Education $95.40, and to the Sunday School Board at Nashville a like amount.

The collection on Children's Day this year amounts to $383.78. Of this amount the Treasurer has been instructed to pay ten per cent. to the General Board, leaving on hand for distribution during the ensuing year $226.50.

The Board is pleased to make the following offer, viz.: To needy schools an amount not exceeding $10 for the purchase of our own literature and song books, and Bibles; to needy schools without libraries, three-fifths of the cost of a library not exceeding in cost $25. Applications for aid must be made to W. H. McCabe, Assistant Secretary, Durham, N. C., signed by the pastor and superintendent.

All money raised on Children's Day should be forwarded to Rev. T. J. Gattis, Treasurer, Charlotte, N. C.

We exhort all our pastors and Sunday School workers to see that Children's Day and Missionary Rally Day be appropriately observed.

We would emphasize the importance of holding Circuit Sunday School Conferences and District Sunday School Conferences, when practicable. When District Sunday School Conferences are not held, let this part of our work receive proper attention at the regular District Conference.

We point with pride to the excellent literature issued by the Sunday School Department, and we believe that there is none better published. We call especial attention to the Children's Visitor, and would insist upon its being placed in the hands of all the children of the Church through the Sunday School or the home.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BIBLE CAUSE.

Your Committee on Bible Cause beg leave to submit the following report :

1. We rejoice in the continued prosperity of the American Bible Society. Especially in that it is prepared to translate the Bible into almost every language and dialect, and that last year more than 800,000 copies were sent to mission fields. Also, that this number might be greatly increased had the Society the necessary funds to enlarge its usefulness.

2. While we are thankful that this Conference has raised $402.40 this year for the Bible Society, yet we greatly deplore the fact that twenty-seven pastoral charges report no collection for this worthy object.

3. We recommend that this claim be faithfully presented to all our people next year, and that all the preachers send their address to Dr. T. H. Law, Spartanburg, S. C., who will send to them, without cost, the Bible Society Record. We also recommend that the low price for which the pure word of God may be obtained, and that indigent persons may receive it free, be constantly kept before all our people.

4. This we recognize as being perhaps more important now, because of the recently acquired territory of the United States and the adjacent mission fields opened to us, and believing, as we do, that the "Bible in the head and Christ in the heart" be necessary to save the world from sin.

REPORT OF EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

Your Epworth League Board is gratified at the progress made by the Epworth League during the year. Ten new chapters have been organized and there has been an increase of 413 members. The League is taking deeper root and stronger hold upon the pastors and the people.

In obedience to the recommendation made by the last Conference, the ervices of Mr. Joe M. Ramsay, of Tennessee, were secured to make as tour of our Conference in the interest of the League. He spent the months of February and March in our Conference and rendered valuable service in awakening the people and organizing Leagues.

We are glad to report that the Conference League held in Raleigh last April was the most successful yet held.

The time and place for holding the next Conference will be announced in due time.

The League statistics according to Districts are as follows :

Raleigh District, 6 Chapters, 189 members.

Durham District, 7 Chapters, 343 members.

Fayetteville District, 6 Chapters, 204 members.

Rockingham District, 6 Chapters, 176 members.

Wilmington District, 1 Chapter, 50 members.

New Bern District, 4 Chapters, 138 members.

Washington District, 5 Chapters, 136 members.

Warrenton District, 4 Chapters, 198 members.

Elizabeth City District, 9 Chapters, 422 members.

Thus making a total of 48 Chapters and 1,856 members, being a net gain of 10 Chapters and 413 members.

We recommend to our Leaguers the books prescribed in our reading course and the Epworth Era, the official organ of our Leagues. We regard this as excellent literature and worthy of increased circulation.

[Document No. 16]

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

During the past year we have aided in supporting the ministry upon forty-four circuits and stations. From the reports made to your body by the preachers in charge it is evident that valuable work has been done which otherwise could not have been accomplished. But for some time there has been growing upon the thoughtful ministers and laymen of our Conference the conviction that largely increased emphasis must be laid upon the work of missions in our own borders. We therefore stood ready to make such increased assessments and appropriations as were necessary. But owing to the failure of the Presiding Elders to accept our invitation to meet with us and, in some cases at least, their failure to put before us vital facts upon which their recommendation was based, we have been unable to reach any independent judgment as to the wisdom of some of the appropriations. Lest we should do injury through our ignorance to important interests, we have for this time granted exactly what the Presiding Elders, not individually, but as a body, have recommended. They therefore, and not we, are responsible for the distribution. But we may not thus shift the responsibility which the discipline puts upon us. It has, therefore, been ordered that our Secretary request each Presiding Elder to furnish him, at least one month before Conference, a statement of the appropriations needed upon that district, and that we request the Bishop and his cabinet to make an early investigation of this important matter, formulate their recommendations, and meet with us for consultation not later than Friday evening of Conference.

The appropriations asked for by the Presiding Elders and accepted by us are as follows:

RALEIGH DISTRICT.

Brooklyn and Macedonia	$ 350 00
Epworth	250 00

To meet these appropriations an assessment of $11,000 is necessary. This, with the $14,400 assessed upon us for foreign missions, is divided to the districts as follows :

Districts.	Foreign.	Domestic.
Raleigh	$ 1,630	$ 1,244
Durham	1,735	1,327
Fayetteville	1,371	1,047
Rockingham	1,466	1,119
Wilmington	1,507	1,151
New Bern	1,670	1,275
Washington	1,670	1,275
Warrenton	1,616	1,235
Elizabeth City	1,735	1,327
	$ 14,400	$ 11,000

The urgent call from the foreign field and the no less urgent need in our own bounds demand a largely increased liberality on the part of our people. We appeal to each Presiding Elder to make this year a systematic effort to increase the amounts paid on his district and especially to see that every aid is rendered to the preachers in charge of those charges which have been accustomed to fall behind in their efforts to bring up their missionary collections in full. We also urge each preacher in charge to enter upon the year with the determination to bring up these collections in full, and, as officers and members of the Board, offer our assistance in that work.

We insist upon an early collection for missions. Where possible, secure the domestic assessments during the first quarter, and the foreign assessments not later than the end of the second quarter. But if that be impossible for local reasons, lay wise plans at the very beginning of the year, and use urgent effort to raise these assessments as early as possible. Moreover, when you have collected any reasonable amount on either collection forward it at once to the Treasurer of the Board, J. B. Walker, Durham, N. C. We also urge that you give the people a separate opportunity to contribute to the missionary cause and that you do not combine your collections, assuming the responsibility, which is not rightly yours, of dividing the sum collected among the different causes.

Let our preachers and people read our Methodist Review of Missions. It is in every respect worthy of our patronage. We also call the attention of our preachers and Presiding Elders to the large number of helpful leaflets, which will be furnished for free distribution to any one of them upon application to the Missionary Secretaries, Nashville, Tenn.

During the year we have lost one of our most valuable and faithful members, Col. Roger Moore. Wise in counsel, pure in purpose, faithful and diligent, we will miss him beyond the power o' words to express.

In compliance with your request we have named the following delegates to the Missionary Conference :

Clerical—R. F. Bumpas, R. C. Beaman, J. A. Hornaday, R. B. John, G. T. Adams, W. S. Rone, A. J. Parker, W. L. Cuninggim, T. N. Ivey, N. M. Watson, D. H. Tuttle, E. H. Davis, M. T. Plyler, L. S. Massey, F. A. Bishop, N. H. D. Wilson, R. H. Willis.

Alternates—N. E. Coletrane, J. H. Hall, A. McCullen, F. M. Shamburger, R. H. Broom, W. F. Craven, L. M. Chaffin, J. D. Bundy, H. B. Anderson, W. H. Townsend.

Lay—D. B. Zollicoffer, J. B. Walker, J. N. Gibbons, Q. K. Nimocks, J. S. Carr, T. A. Green, J. F. Bruton, L. L. Smith, N. M. Journey, J. G. Brown, W. E. Springer, R. N. Page.

Alternates—V. Ballard, J. T. Flythe, G. S. Prichard, F. B. Gibson, C. W. Bynum.

The report of the Treasurer for this Conference year is as follows :

Sessions of the North Carolina Conference.

The North Carolina Conference was set off from the Virginia Conference in February, 1837. In 1850, and again in 1870, North Carolina territory in the South Carolina Conference was transferred to this Conference. In 1890, North Carolina territory in the Holston Conference and in the Virginia Conference, except that beyond the Chowan River, was transferred to the North Carolina Conference, and the Conference was divided into the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences. In 1894, the remaining N. C. territory in the Virginia Conference was transferred to the N. C. Conference. So now the two Conferences embrace the whole of North Carolina.

PROCEEDINGS

OF THE

North Carolina Conference Historical Society.

NEW BERN, N. C., December 4th, 1900.

The Seventh Annual Meeting of the North Carolina Conference Historical Society was held in Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in New Bern, N. C., December 4th, 1900, N. H. D. Wilson, President, in the Chair.

The opening religious services were conducted by Rev. N. H. D. Wilson, assisted by Revs. J. E. Underwood and R. F. Bumpas.

Rev. T. N. Ivey, D. D., delivered an address on the "Life, Character, and Labors of the late W. H. Branson, Esq."

Rev. S. Milton Frost, D. D., presented a paper, which was read by the President, on the Conference session of 1846.

The Treasurer reported $33.00 on hand.

On motion, a vote of thanks was tendered Drs. Ivey and Frost for the papers they had presented, accompanied with the request that the manuscripts be furnished for publication.

On motion, it was ordered that we assure the Editor of the Annual that we will do our best to circulate the Annual, if he will publish it.

The following officers of the Society were elected, viz.: President, N. H. D. Wilson; First Vice-President, W. S. Rone; Second Vice-President, W. H. Moore; Secretary, W. F. Craven; Treasurer, R. H. Broom; Editor of Annual, Dr. J. S. Bassett; Assistant, W. H. Willis.

On motion of W. S. Rone, it was ordered that this Society take steps to work in union with the Society of the Western North Carolina Conference.

It was ordered that the Executive Committee select the subject and orator for the next meeting of the Society.

The Society adjourned with the Benediction.

N. H. D. WILSON, President.

W. L. CUNINGGIM, Secretary.
